BLUES GEM ASH GRUNWALD JOINS THE 2015 BLUES ON BROADBEACH MUSIC FESTIVAL LINE UP

Blues on Broadbeach Music Festival has added Australian Blues Legend Ash Grunwald to the incredible line-up of Australian and international artists to headline the event, May 21 to 24, 2015.

Fresh from the Byron Bluesfest, this will be the first time Grunwald has been seen at the four day event, and will take to the main Surf Parade Stage on Saturday May 23 at 8.45pm.

Grunwald joins Grammy nominated Andrew Strong who is bringing The Commitments Tour to the Blues on Broadbeach Music Festival with a 9-piece band performing hits including Mustang Sally from the BAFTA award winning film that received incredible chart success internationally. Strong has toured with the likes of The Rolling Stones, Elton John, Prince, Lenny Kravitz with several solo albums under his belt hitting Platinum status.

Australian blues rock band and household name, The Black Sorrows will also be returning to the Blues on Broadbeach Music Festival stage with Aria Hall of Fame inductee Joe Camilleri on lead vocals.

The free event staged in the streets and in venues over four huge days throughout the popular Gold Coast hub will also feature James Morrison, Jeff Lang, Tijuana Cartel, The Backsliders and US favourites Old Gray Mule.

The festival will celebrate its 14th year, in 2015 and organisers Broadbeach Alliance along with major partners Tourism and Events Queensland and the City of Gold Coast are thrilled that from humble beginnings, the festival has grown to become one the largest music festivals in Australia.

Presented by the award-winning team at Broadbeach Alliance, Blues on Broadbeach is a major Queensland event winning "Best Regional Event QLD" and "Best Arts, Cultural or Music Event QLD" at the prestigious 2014 Australian Event Awards, and is also honoured as a Top Ten Finalist in the category of "Australia's Favourite Event 2014".

CEO of Broadbeach Alliance Jan McCormick promises the 2015 festival will deliver some of the best artists in the country, whilst remaining free to attend.

"The Blues on Broadbeach Music Festival continues to grow every year and with the line-up we are about to present we believe people will fly from across the country to be a part of this incredibly unique event."

The 2015 festival will showcase Australian and international artists on outdoor stages and in venues throughout Broadbeach on the Gold Coast.

“Apart from being free, what is so unique about Blues on Broadbeach is that you can book a table at one of the restaurants or an apartment in Broadbeach and soak up the festival atmosphere and in some cases even see the main stages from the comfort of your table or balcony” said Mrs McCormick.

City of Gold Coast Mayor Tom Tate said the Blues on Broadbeach Festival was an important part of the Gold Coast events calendar for locals and visitors alike.

“Securing world-renowned acts has elevated the reputation of the festival and has translated into thousands of international and domestic visitors,” said Cr Tate.

“It has been enormously satisfying seeing the festival growth year after year, and I know that next year will be the best yet.”

The Blues on Broadbeach Music Festival May 21-24, 2015, is a free event to attend.
